Missions Grant for Current Missionaries

Missionaries who are currently serving full-time or emeritus with IMB or NAMB (Career, Journeyman, Macedonia, NAMB-endorsed Chaplains) may be eligible for a tuition grant from SBTS. Masters-level students may be eligible for a grant of 50% of tuition. Research doctoral students may be eligible for a grant of 30% of tuition and professional doctoral students may be eligible for a grant of 20% of tuition. The grant does not cover health services, technology, or continuation fees.

IMB missionaries will receive a 100% tuition grant for the following courses: Intercultural Church Planting (33830), Leadership in Intercultural Context (33020), Cultural Acquisition for Missionaries (33420).

Stipulations

- Eligible students should complete the Service Verification Form for current missionaries.
- The grant will be available for either one degree (at Boyce College or Southern Seminary) or six years of study, whichever comes first. The grant is not available for Seminary Track students.
- The grant can be applied after the SBC tuition discount, if applicable. However, the grant cannot be combined with any other institutional scholarship, discount, or grant.
- For Macedonia Project benefits, refer to the IMB memorandum of understanding.
- The grant may not be applied retroactively.
- Students must remain in good academic standing with the institution.
- Students who are approved for service after the start of a given term may be eligible for the grant at the start of the following term.
- MATSIL students must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student and appointed by the IMB prior to receiving the grant.
- Should the student resign from the IMB or NAMB, the grant will be discontinued.
- Students who are not enrolled or withdraw from classes for longer than one year will need to reapply for the grant and all eligibility standards must be met.
- All applications must be approved by the Human Resources Office of either the IMB or NAMB before being approved by Southern Seminary.
